Al Zahraa Al Saqri is a dedicated trainee lawyer with a solid academic foundation and diverse experience. She earned her bachelor's degree in law from Sultan Qaboos University in 2023, where she developed a comprehensive understanding of legal principles.

During her studies, Al Zahraa gained practical experience through training stints at the Administrative Judiciary Court and the Ministry of Justice and Legal Affairs, where she was exposed to a range of legal matters and administrative processes. After graduating, she further honed her skills as a trainee legal researcher at the Ministry of Labor, specializing in labor law. This role allowed her to gain significant experience in reviewing contracts and drafting legal memos.

Al Zahraa's proficiency in labor law, combined with her adeptness at contract analysis and legal document drafting. Currently, she works on case preparation, client consultations as well as drafting memos, contracts and other legal documents. In addition, she has a lawyer license to litigate before the court.
