AbuBakr El Tayeb has been practicing law and is licensed to practice law in Sudan since 1981.

AbuBakr has deep experience and knowledge in the local Laws and Regulations. Prior to joining ALC, AbuBakr has worked in leading local law firms in Sudan and Oman. His experience also covers working as an in-house counsel for many government-owned companies in Oman.

With his wide experience, AbuBakr has advised on wide and large civil and commercial disputes and arbitration. With his deep knowledge, his clients have positioned AbuBakr to advise on many complex legal matters, including but not limited to commercial and civil disputes, commercial and corporate practice, arbitration, employment, and insurance issues.

AbuBakr has also advised on various commercial disputes, such as construction, partnerships, contracts, and other sort of disputes which fall under more than one jurisdiction.

AbuBakr was involved in wide real estate matters when he was acting as an in-house counsel with Al Mouj Muscat and Blue City projects. His role with these projects has given the opportunities to advise on sale and purchase of properties, ownership issues, licensing, usufruct matters, tenancy matters, construction and design of properties, and other complex matters that fall under his main duties.
