

Aoun Al Zadjali
Litigation Associate
Omani Lawyer
E: aalzadjali@alc-firm.com

Languages:
English, Arabic

Aoun Al Zadjali is an Omani lawyer who started his career onto the legal scene after graduating from Sultan Qaboos University. As a new fresh beginner, Amount started as an intern in a very well know local firm supporting the litigation team on criminal defense, civil, administrative, and commercial law cases.

After that Aoun was offered a job to join as a trainee lawyer in another litigation firm, where he was assigned into the internal relevant insurance law team. Aoun focuses more on various cases relevant to insurance sector including medical, loan, vehicle and professional liability insurance.

Aoun's expertise extends beyond insurance law. He works further on construction cases, recovery of substantial debts, and labour aspects.

At ALC, Aoun manages a variety of cases, advocating for individuals and companies in local disputes before the Omani Courts. His duties encompass preparing cases, composing memos, attending hearings, and keeping clients informed. Additionally, he demonstrates proficiency in legal research, analysis, and providing strategic advice to clients.